Classical Conversations is a community of home educators which seeks to equip parents and students with the classical tools of learning in order to discover the order and beauty of God's creation. Danville currently offers Foundations and Essentials for elementary aged school children and the Challenge program for middle and high school students. An information night anyone interested in learning more about Classical Conversations will be held on Thursday, February 4 from 7-9pm at Grace. Questions? Contact Joyce Cothran jcothran247@yahoo.com or visit the website www.classicalconversations.com.

Youth for Understanding USA

Consider being a host family for the student listed below. To find out more, contact Darrin Farr at farrde@corning.com or 583.8311.

Name: Ann-Sophie (14 year old female)

Country: Germany

Program: 2010/Year

YFU Student Number: 20101490030053

Will you be a dream maker for Ann-Sophie? Ann-Sophie's dream has been to travel abroad and she is so eager to make new friends and family in the States. Ann-Sophie describes herself as "sensitive, positive, helpful and very open minded". Music is very important to her and has played violin for 7 years as well as the piano. Her favorite subjects in school are Politics, English, History, Geography and she enjoys the school chorus as well. Ann-Sophie likes hanging out with her friends and reading in her spare time as well as swimming and bicycling. Ann-Sophie is an acolyte in her church. She regularly attends church and is looking forward to experiencing this with her host family. Ann-Sophie lives with her mother and her grandparents live next door. Family is very important to her. Ann-Sophie loves to cook and bake and try out new recipes. At home she takes care of her rabbit and helps with the household chores. She is excited to be able to spend a year as part of your family and looks forward to meeting you soon.
